(c) and (d) Yes, Sir. PDS is operated under the joint responsibility of the Central and the State Governments. The Central Government has the responsibility for procurement, storage, transportation and bulk allocation of foodgrains, etc. The responsibility for effectively distributing the same to the consumers through the network of Fair Price Shops (FPSs) lies with the State Governments. The operational responsibilities including allocation within the State, identification of families below poverty line, issue of ration cards, supervision and monitoring the functioning of Fair Price Shops rest with the State Governments.

For maintaining supply and securing availability and distribution of foodgrains under the PDS, the Central Government has notified PDS (Control) Order, 2001 on 31.08.2001. The procedure for monitoring of the Public Distribution System (PDS) including the functioning of the Fair-Price Shops (FPSs) by the State Governments has been prescribed in Annexe to the PDS (Control) Order, 2001. Proviso 6(4) of the Annexe, stipulates that the State Governments shall ensure a periodic system of reporting and the complete information in this regard shall be sent in the prescribed form as follows:

(i) By fair price shops in the District Authorities by the 7th of the month following the month for which allocation is made in Form 'A'.

(ii) By the District authorities to State Government by the 15th of the month following the month for which allocation is made in Form 'B'.

(iii) By the State Government to the Central Government by the end of the month following the month for which allocation is made in Form 'C.

(e) and (f) Yes, Sir. The State Government have furnished information in form "C to the Central Government upto October, 2006.
